The Mitchell Scholarship, which supports graduate study in Ireland, requires students to be endorsed by their campuses. UCSB students should send an email indicating their interest in the Marshall Scholarship to scholarships@ltsc.ucsb.edu, and they will be contacted by Zach Romash, an academic advisor in the College of Letters and Sciences, who coordinates the campus nomination process for all UCSB undergraduates, regardless of their colleges.

Mr. Romash will work closely with students as they prepare their applications; therefore, students should arrange to consult with him well in advance of the application deadline. Students should also consult with professors in their area of interest while preparing the Mitchell application. The Campus Learning Assistance Services (CLAS) staff will be available throughout the summer to help you with the preparation of your personal statement. Go to www.us-irelandalliance.org for details on the application process, eligibility requirements, and graduate study in Ireland.

September 10, 2015, is the deadline for the campus review of UCSB applications for the Mitchell Scholarship. You must complete the online application and upload all the supporting materials, including unofficial transcripts from all the colleges you have attended, including UCSB, by the September 10 deadline. Do not, however, “submit” the application for national review until getting the go ahead by Mr. Romash. Make sure to list Mr. Romash as the Fellowship Advisor in the Educational Section of your application so that he may have access to the application.

Also, four letters of recommendation must be submitted on-line by September 10; otherwise, the application will be considered incomplete and will NOT be considered for nomination. If you have any questions, please contact Zach Romash at scholarships@ltsc.ucsb.edu.
