Regulations governing applicability of Extension courses:
1. Courses completed through University Extension do not apply to UCSB academic residence requirements.
2. University Extension courses do not count toward full-time enrollment.
3. Most University Extension courses will not influence your UCSB grade-point average. An exception is made for UCSB courses completed through UCSB Extension's Open University Program beginning fall 2000; these courses (and no others) will apply to the GPA, with repeats treated in the same way as UCSB courses. Students are not eligible to take UCSB courses by UCSB Extension’s Open University Program if they are subject to disqualification, on reinstatement-probation, academically disqualified or dismissed by dean’s action.
4. If this petition is approved, credit will be allowed for the courses if they appear on your transcript as you have listed them and they do not duplicate credit already earned. The dean’s review determines only whether a course is acceptable. It is your responsibility to ensure that any course you take does not duplicate prior credit earned.
