UNIT REQUIREMENTS
180 total units required (184 if option 1 is chosen in GE Area B). 60 units must be upper-division.

The “UC & Transfer Work Undergraduate Total” on your unofficial transcript represents the preliminary number of units you have completed. However, please note that some units may not apply to the degree and must therefore be subtracted:

1) Credit is normally allowed only once for specific course material. Therefore, if you have completed a course at UCSB that duplicates credit already awarded from another institution, or if you have completed mutually exclusive courses at UCSB, credit will be deducted for the duplicate work. Similarly, credit will be deducted for any UCSB course you repeat unless it is designated as repeatable for credit.
2) No more than 6 units of ES 1- or equivalent course work will be accepted toward your overall unit requirement.

Use the attached worksheet to calculate your units.

GRADE-POINT AVERAGE REQUIREMENTS
At least 2.0 (C) grade-point average in the following:
all UC courses taken all UC courses applicable to the major all UC courses applicable to the upper-division major (includes only courses taken for letter grades in the University of California)

Please Note: No more than one-third of each student’s units completed at UCSB may be taken passed/not-passed.

ACADEMIC RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS
In the University of California:
3 regular terms of at least 6 units each (a UC summer session in which at least 2 units are completed is the equivalent of one-half term)

In the College of Letters and Science at UCSB:
35 of the final 45 units*
27 upper-division units
20 upper-division units in the major (18 if admitted prior to fall 1999)
*amended to 35 of the final 90 units for students who participate in the UC Education Abroad Program in senior standing.

MAJOR REQUIREMENTS
The requirements for your major are described on the official information sheet sent to you when you entered the major (either upon admission to UCSB or when you declared or changed your major). Questions regarding your major requirements should be directed to the department adviser.
